The executive committee of Tokyo International Choir Competition

Notice Regarding Postponement of the 3rd Tokyo International Choir Competition

We carefully proceed the preparation for our competition which would happen 4 months later, so that it could be held under safe environment.

After repeated discussion with our co-host, Chuo city (Tokyo) and relevant parties, we decided to postpone the 3rd Tokyo International Choir Competition planned to be held in September 2020 to 2021 due to pandemic of COVID-19.

This postponement is a huge disappointment for us, and we feel sorry for our partners, participants and audience who all love our competition and music. It is hard decision for us when considering all of you preparing the participation of our competition. We, all members of the executive committee have firmly decided to have a successful competition next year.
